Nourison opens distribution facility in Las Vegas

SADDLE BROOK, NJ — July 15, 2019 – Leading floor covering and home accents manufacturer Nourison is opening a distribution facility in North Las Vegas. Nourison will occupy 121,000 square feet of the 376,264 square foot Prologis I-15 Speedway Logistics Center, an industrial business park developed by San Francisco-based REIT, Prologis, located at 5245 N. Sloan Lane.

"Our business is rapidly changing and we are focused on shipping more orders in 24-48 hours to keep up with our customers' needs. This new distribution center gives us increased warehouse space and faster and more efficient ways to service our customers in the western states," said Andrew Peykar, president at Nourison.

The North Las Vegas location will be the third Nourison distribution facility, with existing facilities in Calhoun, Georgia and Saddle Brook, New Jersey. This location is expected to create 45-50 new jobs. Area rugs and home accents are expected to begin shipping out of the facility by September 2019.

About Nourison

Nourison is a leading global floor covering company that produces extensive collections of area rugs, broadloom carpet, and home accessories at multiple price points from low to mid-market to luxury. Nourison is one of the few fully vertically integrated companies in its segment, overseeing almost every aspect of the manufacturing process. As a result, the company boasts exceptional speed-to-market, shipping more than 95 percent of its product orders within 48 hours. The focus on customer service has helped Nourison become a valued partner within the home furnishings and hospitality industries to both retailers and interior designers.

Nourison was founded in New York by brothers Alex, Steven, and Paul Peykar in 1980, and remains a family-owned company. Its product assortment includes licensed collections from well-known brands such as CALVIN KLEIN, Kathy Ireland, Waverly, Christopher Guy, and more.
